

News from the Elephant Class

February 3-7, 2020

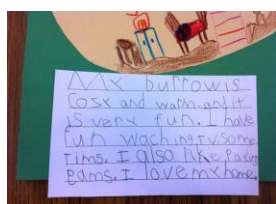

Writing Workshop

We kicked off our new "How to" writing unit last week by writing directions for "How to Make a Sock Snowman! We use a special template to write sequential directions that tell what to do first, next, and last. (See Pictures on Twitter @Elephant Class) because they turned out ADORABLE! This week we'll have fun writing directions for How to Eat an Oreo and How to Eat a Peanut Butter & Jelly Sandwich (after assembling a pretend paper one 😊)

Social Studies/Science

Happy Belated Groundhog Day on February 2nd! We learned about real groundhogs and designed our own burrows!

Our map unit continues! It's been cute to see this learning carry over to our Art Cart Center where the kids have spontaneously wanted to make maps!

Special Events/Reminders

Friday, Feb. 3rd - Celebrating the 100th Day of School!

Tuesday, Feb. 4th - Global Day of Play- See note in Friday Gator folders (Please save & send in empty cereal boxes, paper towel/toilet paper rolls, boxes of any size)

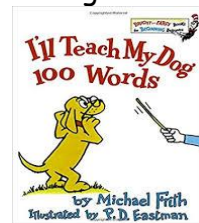

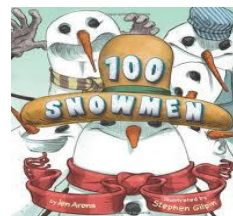

Math

On Monday we are very excited to celebrate the 100th Day of school with lots of special activities including a hunt for 100 Hershey Kisses! Have your child count to 100 for you by tens and ones.

Reading Workshop

We have lots of fun "100 related" books to read and we'll even make our own class book turning the number 100 into something 😊

New Word Wall Words: (not, day)

Keep practicing - (am, and, are at, can, come, Dad, Do, do, for, go, going, here, he, I, in, it, like, look, my, mom, me, on, out, play, see, she, to, the, up, we, you)

Phonics Focus: sh, th, ch digraph sounds

Specials This Week:

Mon. - Science Tues. - PE Wed. - Music
Thurs. - Media Fri. - Character Ed

